To the Precious Family of Cindy Wingate: I came to know Cindy (we called her Cinn because we had two Cindy's in our group at Living Waters) in 2000. We were all battling medical conditions that were severe; and in constant pain. And yet in all of her trails and illnesses, she was encouraging others. She was a fighter and fought the good fight of faith and Joy. I will miss her. She barely got to heaven, when another one of our sisters came to meet her, Debi Joy Dallman. We will miss both of them so much. We have cried and yet at the same time know where they are in perfect peace and wholeness. My love, and prayers are with each of you. She loved each of you so much. She was so proud of each of you. And those grandchildren, awe, I remember there names, even right now, because she loved to speak of how much she loved you. You had an awesome grandmother. Love, Pastor Martha - Living Waters Group.

Like a butterfly in all God's beauty, She lights beside me for just a moment...then flies on again. I wish she could have stayed, yet feel so lucky to have seen her.
