He was preceded in death by his parents, Simon Medrano and Maria Salas; son, Christopher Medrano; and brothers, Frank and David Medrano. Survivors include his son, Steven Medrano; daughter, Jessica Medrano; daughters-in-law, Neida and Stacy Medrano; brothers, Tony, Ruben, Raul, Jessie, Martin, and Simon Medrano; sisters, Angela and Jennifer Medrano; and grandchildren, Hagan, Riley, Damian, and Brinklee Medrano.

Daddy, our song, That's my job keeps playing in my head. I want you to know you did your job and you did it well. Now, it's my job. I just hope to make you proud. I'll always remember you saying "work smart, not hard". Until we meet again, Love, Mijo.

If I had known that the last time I hugged you would be my last I would of held on tighter and never let go. I'm so heartbroken and lost. I love you so much. I know you were ready to go home and with that I take comfort in knowing you're with Grandma, Uncle Frank, and Christopher. You're finally home Daddy. Until we meet again, I'll love you always. Love, your Pumpkin.

When it comes to talking about Alfred where do I start? Alfred was a great man, a great father, and more importantly, a great friend. I didn't know what it was like to have a dad. Unfortunately, I never knew my father. In the five years of knowing Alfred, I found something I didn't even know I could find, a DAD! From checking the car oil, to changing a tire, and sharing a couple of drinks gave me some of the happiest moments of my life. Thank you Alfred for being my DAD. I will forever miss you. God Speed Dad! Fly High. Love, Neida.

Daddy, we think about you always, we talk about you daily. You will never be forgotten. We hold you close within our hearts and there you will remain to walk and guide us through our lives until we meet again. Love always, Mija a/k/a Stacy.

Please join our family Saturday, October 23, 2021 at 12:00 PM to celebrate Alfred's life at Pioneer Park, Zolfo Springs in the big pavillion in the back with the metal roof. Bring your smiles, laughs and stories; we want to hear it all. There will be food and dessert.
