

Barbara Juanita Carter

August 20, 1963 - December 25, 2021

Barbara Juanita Carter passed away peacefully, surrounded by loved ones in her home on December 25th, 2021. She was born on August 20, 1963, in Blueberry Hill, Michigan, as the youngest of thirteen children, to Violet and Clarence D. Baker. Barbara is survived by her best friend and love of her life of 37 years, Robert Wayne Carter, and their four children: Katina Peduzzi (Spouse, Andrew, and son, Devon), Eric Baker (Spouse, Jessica, and children: Liam, Ella, Jameson, Collin), Robert "Lee Bug" Carter (Spouse, Vanessa, and children: Malia, Mya, Landon, Leila) and Ayrica Baker (great-granddaughter, Adeline). She is survived by her brother Bruce Baker. Barbara will be best known for being a hard-working woman full of life that wore her emotions on her sleeve and loved her children and grandbabies with everything she had! She wouldn't hesitate to let you know exactly what was on her mind or how she felt. Her favorite thing to do was go catfishing with family and friends. Two values she raised her children and lived by till she was called home were to "Always finish what you started!" and "Always do your best!"

A visitation will be held Thursday, December 30th at 10:00 a.m. followed by A Celebration of Life at 11:00 a.m. Friends and family are invited to attend at Roberts Family Funeral Home (529 West Main Street Wauchula, Florida 33873) with burial at the Wauchula Cemetery.

“ I remember the good times. The times spent in Wauchula where your home felt like my home, so cozy and warm. The times spent in the backyard by the fire, the times spent around your table with always a homemade delicious meal to give and a perfect glass of Merlot. I remember our conversations, where you'd say "well, hun..." and always offer a word of wisdom. When you accepted me as your son's wife without regard I was thrilled. You and your son have taught me to be adventurous and how to get dirty and I'm thankful for that. I'm thankful for all the great memories we made during the good times and those are the times I will remember when I think of you. Thank you for raising a wonderful son. Eric is one of the strongest people I know and although life is not perfect I'm thankful for you because you gave me him. And I'm thankful for all I've learned in the last 14 years from you and him. Rest easy Granny and cheers. All my heart Momma.

Sincerely, Jessica

“ Missing you every day, Ms. Barb! Wauchula isn't the same without you. I keep thinking you're going to walk around the corner and ask "what ya'll doin!" and pinch my butt or gently tuck my hair behind my ear and tell me you love me like you always did. Your passing hurts, but I take comfort knowing you're with Jesus enjoying your grandbabies and having fun with all the animals up there! I love you more, Ms. Barb. Ness

“ I first met Ms. Barbara, back in February 2011, for our grandson’s first birthday celebration. My first impression of her was that she was a quiet lady. Well that impression flew over me, outside the Walmart parking lot! We were loading the van up, in front of the store and this lady drove by us and told us we couldn’t park there! Ms Barbara and I at the same time, yelled, yes we did yell at that lady telling her that we are not parking we are loading up our van! Right there and then I was like, I found my twin sister from another mister😂 and from that day forward we became each other’s Partner in crime! Ms. Barbara I love you and you will be truly missed but always in our hearts😭❤️👉❤️👉 Rest In Paradise 🙏💕🙏

“ Sharing in your sorrow, may you know how much Barbara's great spirit and personality touched everyone who knew her!! Remembering all the good times camping, swimming & just spending time with each other. Thinking about the time her & I were 'enjoying' the waves at Turtle Beach...She will be missed by so many, words cannot even express how much I will miss her. Just know Kenny & i are here for you & we are offering our most sincere sympathy!! Jan & Kenny
