“ I can't begin to express such a deep sense of loss... Aunt Barb meant the world to me.

Most of my fondest childhood memories were of the times at the house in Nunica, picnics, holidays, birthdays, a trip to the Musical Fountain on Saturday nights, riding in Mahitabelle, swimming behind the blueberry patch, Ravenna Sale on Monday mornings... and yes, a garage sale here and there.

As the story goes, I cried for a week solid when they moved to Tampa in 1967... so true.

But a few hundred miles never kept us apart, I could call and we'd gab for hours on the phone, about everything, about nothing in particular. And although visits were never quite as long or as often as we wished, the memories are flooding back to me now of all the wonderful time we had as a family.

Aunt Barb was such a joy to us all, her love for each one of us so evident.

I know the gates of Heaven have opened up wide and she has been greeted by those she has loved and those that have loved her. Rest in God's peace Aunt Barb, you will always be present in my heart and in my mind. Love, Mary Ann (Eggnates-Fannywammy)
