“ Growing up I would hang out at Calvin's house sometimes and it was always adventurous to say the least. His son Marty and I got into a little mischief a time or two. . Calvin would just shake his head and laugh under his breath and walk away, a man of few words. He was what I considered a "cool" dad, never chewed us out too much. I have fond memories of Calvin and his family. As a teenager some people that crossed your path stay in your memory and in your hearts... RIP Calvin, you fought the same fight my dad did and although we miss you.. YOU came out the winner! You will forever be in our hearts. Glve my daddy a big hug from me and tell him we're okay..
