

Charles Foster Ammons

April 10, 1931 - December 15, 2014

Charles Foster Ammons, known as Foster or Charlie, age 83, passed away at Doctors Hospital of Sarasota on Monday, December 15, 2014. He was born on April 10, 1931 in Wayne County, Georgia and moved to DeSoto County from Merritt Island, Florida in 1996. He was a United States Army veteran, serving in the 82nd Airborne. Foster was a Baptist and had been employed as a salesman in a tire store.

Survivors include his wife, Melba Ammons of Arcadia; one son, Charles Greg Ammons and wife Mara of Milton; one daughter, Donna Ammons of Fort Lauderdale; one step-daughter, Debbie Dennison and husband Phil of Merritt Island; one brother, Clyde Ammons and wife Pam of Naples; one sister, Doris Shankle of Hollywood; five grandchildren, Andrew Ammons and wife Kayla, Amanda Ammons, Dustin Ammons and wife Alicia, Cara Pedone, and Jeremy Ammons and wife Missi; and six great-grandchildren, Allison, Courtney, Emily, and Sydney Ammons, Sadie Grace Ammons, and Nat Ammons.

Memorial services may be held at a later date.