

Cleota Simmons

December 10, 1916 - December 21, 2010

Cleota Simmons, 94, of Sarasota, formerly of Arcadia, died Dec. 21, 2010 at Manor Care in Sarasota. She was a member of Limestone Baptist Church and served with her husband, Rev. Emmett Simmons, in ministry for 55 years. He preceded her in death.

Survivors include two sons, Arthur Simmons (Marti) of Orlando and Jimmie Simmons (Trudy) of Palm Beach Gardens; one daughter, Anna Jane Evers (Ralph) of Sarasota; two sisters, Mary Harley of Bradenton and Alberta Brown of Ft. Myers; 6 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren

Visitation is Sunday, Dec. 26th from 5-7 at Robarts Garden Chapel. Funeral services are at 11 a.m. Monday at Limestone Baptist Church with Rev. A. O. Henry and Rev. Ricky Russell officiating. Interment is in Lily Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

BS

“Mrs. Cleo and Bro. Emmett meant so much to me. He was my pastor while in Duette and then in Bowling Green. Many times they took me home with them so I could get to church. One time, I spent Thanksgiving with them at Jimmy's. Bro. Emmett married me and Paul. They were wonderful people. I pray God's grace upon you all during this time. I love you, Jimmy.

Brenda Sutton - December 28, 2010 at 09:26 AM