“ I personally want to thank all who came to my mom's Celebration of Life at Hardee Manor. I truly appreciated the stories and the love of my mother that was felt in the room. The staff at Hardee Manor and from VITAS hospice have been one of the best support groups I could ever imagine. I am so thankful GOD allowed my mother and I to heal our old battle wounds these past few years and Im thankful GOD had my mother in a place where she was not only took care of but also LOVED. Recently I had checked into relocating her to Georgia near me and was lining it all up but when I came down end of Sept. I talked to her real caregivers and realized physically and emotionally my mother really didnt need to be moved. We all know my mom was a fiesty one with a big heart and the staff at Hardee Manor knew it as well but they had compassion and cared for her til the end. As I was told Wed. Jan 4 she was the retired social worker who never retired and pretty much knew everything going on in the building and out and if someone needed help my mom would be in her scooter at the front office getting "things in order". I regret not having her closer BUT I dont know if she would have been in a closer place happy like she was at Hardee Manor. Before your loved ones get to the place in life where they need help check out Hardee Manor. As my mom told me when I was looking if a place smells like bleach they are trying to cover up something.... I am forever thankful for Hardee Manor and tthe staff and the Vitas staff. I also want to thank Robarts for taking care of my mothers arrangements.

My brother, daughters , family and I will be placing Mom in Wauchula Cementary in a private ceremony and then will also be taking her back home to Columbus Ga where her parents are buried. Thanks again for the love shown in honor of her.

“ Connie was a dear friend who would do anything for anyone. Her door was always open. My first and only true friend I made when I moved to Florida. I had the chance to go back and visit Connie after I moved home to NH. We had a blast together. I will always treasure that week we spent together. RIP my friend. Love you. Sheila
