

Crystal Dawn Frammer

August 4, 1988 - November 23, 2018

Crystal Dawn Frammer, 30, of Zolfo Springs, went to be with her Lord and Savior on Friday, Nov. 23, 2018, surrounded by her loving family.

Crystal was born Aug., 4, 1988, in Arcadia, and lived in Hardee County her entire life. She was a member of Real Life Church in Bowling Green. She loved her family and friends, the outdoors, and animals of any kind. She loved to fish, but her children were her life's passion.

She was preceded in death by her brother, Robert Joseph Oakes; grandfather, John A. Jones Jr.; grandmother, Bettie Lou Jackson; and great-grandparents, John A. Jones Sr. and Nora Jones.

Crystal is survived by her son, Tyler, of Wauchula; two daughters, Natasha "Tashy" and Lucy Kelley, both of Wauchula; mother, Connie Jones (William Daugherty); nephew, Bradley Frammer; of Zolfo Springs; father, Stephen Frammer, of Zolfo Springs; grandparents, Karl and Gloria Frammer, of Zolfo Springs; two sisters, Monica Oakes, of Dickson, Tenn., April Gilbert (Michael), of Centerville, Tenn.; brother, Jesse Adams, of Zolfo Springs; and several extended family members and many, many friends.

Crystal will be missed by many.

A Celebration of Life will be held Tuesday, Nov. 27, at 6 p.m., at Real Life Church with Mike Graham officiating.
