

Dalton Harley Ray Igo

June 13, 1998 - October 31, 2015

Dalton Harley Ray Igo, 17, of Bowling Green, passed away on Saturday, October 31, 2015. He was born in Winter Haven on June 13, 1998 and had been a lifelong resident of Hardee County. Dalton loved to hunt and fish, and was a student at Hardee High School. He had recently enrolled at South Florida State College.

Dalton's grandfather, Norman Lee Igo, and great-uncle, Robert Barnwell, preceded him in death.

Survivors include his mother, Cassie Taylor of Bowling Green; father, Norman Igo of Lake Wales; grandmothers, Ruth Epperson of Bowling Green and Rita Igo of Gibsonton; 3 sisters, Jessie Ray Igo of Bowling Green, Amber and Chrystal Igo of Tampa; 5 brothers, Jeremy Franks of Wauchula, Layton and Logan Taylor of Bowling Green, Norman Ray Westphal of Tampa, and Charles Covin Ray Igo of Georgia; 3 aunts, Tammy Epperson of Zolfo Springs, Maria of Gibsonton and Diana of Tampa; great-aunt, Sherrill Barnwell of Wauchula; 5 uncles, Jacob Samuel Woodard of Fort Myers, Larry Gladden, Jr. of Sebring, Jeremy Epperson of Tenn., Timothy and Quincy Igo of Tampa; step-grandparents, Earl and Linda Taylor; and lots of cousins.

Arrangements are pending at this time.