“ Our daredevil, our comedian, our heart of gold boy..... Your beautiful smile, and infectious laugh lit up any room you walked in to. To meet you, was to love you. I wish you could have seen yourself through our eyes. Our family circle is forever broken without you here.

*I never met Daniel, but I also lost my son Greg, 13 years ago to depression. He had just turned 34.
Ms. Foster's description of Daniel fits our son to a T....Daredevil, comedian, heart of gold.
I offer my deepest condolences to Daniel's entire family, I know your pain and I empathize with you all.
May our Heavenly Father gather Daniel into His loving arms
Most sincerely,
Lois Courville.*
