Don fought a good fight as our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ took his hand and comforted his beloved wife and family through his journey. He will be long missed But the memories he leaves behind will stand forever. Niece I wish that had the words for you. Keep your faith in our Savior and he will rejoin you and Brother Don. Love you and the family. Uncle David and Aunt Terry

“ Don and I have shared a great friendship since our teenage years. He literally saved my life when I was 16 and I would gladly do anything I could to have saved his. I miss him dearly but I know where he is and that we shall meet again. The love and respect he had for his wife and his marriage could be a lesson for all of us.
