“ She used to teach Good News Club in her house, and ask us to write a story. I don't exactly remember what I wrote, but she sure did brag about how good it was. She was a fine Christian lady and the mother of one of my best friends.

“ The first time I saw Doris Mahon was at a Full Gospel Businessmans meeting in Lakeland, Fl. I had received the baptism in the Holy Spirit. (I am sure that experience had something to do with this) , Doris was standing there smiling. She looked like an angel to me. We became instant friends. She and her husband, Walter were living in Dade City (If I remember right) and soon they moved to Zolfo Springs and Walter started his own Pluming Business. Walter was originally from Zolfo. This is where My husband and I and all five children lived. We started having prayer meetings in there home. Those were a lot of good times. After Walter died, eventually Doris remarried and moved away. No matter how far away she went, or how long it was in between times that we saw each other, we were always best friends. Many years had passed when Doris began to loose her memory but she never failed to know me when I walked through her door. Doris is in Heaven and I know that she has a Heavenly smile that far surpasses the smile that I saw when we first met. She is young and beautiful as she was at the most beautiful time of her life.
