“ MY LOVE AND CONDOLENCES TO EVELYN'S FAMILY!

Evelyn had a heart of gold and was always helping others,---just like she helped me. In 1967, she took me in. I was just 17 and lived with her for a year until I graduated from high school and left for college. During that time, she gave me a ring which I still wear everyday. Whenever I look at it, I am reminded of her. Evelyn was also the one who introduced me to Jerry who became the love of my life. Jerry and I were married for 33 years before he died of cancer. The last time I saw Evelyn was at Jerry's funeral. I will forever be thankful that Evelyn was a part of my life. She was my "Big Sister." (She was eldest daughter from my dad's first marriage. I am the eldest one from his second marriage.)

“ I give you this one thought to keep.
I am with you still. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on the snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift, uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not think of me as gone.
I am with you still in each new dawn.
