“ Aunt Geraldine: One of the most important female role models in my life. Always so intelligent, independent & funny! As a teenager she would lecture me & give me advice about boys, school, & life in general, mostly in a joke form of some type! Always making the topic not so serious, but you knew, or I did, she really meant every word! She always handed her advice to you straight & to the point & when she finished she will say, “You get my point, right, Joyce! (you aren’t pregnant, are you! I would nearly die!
Everyone loved this woman: she kept you in stitches laughing from the moment she arrived & when she left, you would repeat everything she had just said & laugh again. I loved her as an Aunt, as a Friend, a comedian, a mother, a serious person whose life was filled with love, happiness, sorrow, & troubles. She was a very strong woman! This was her Life, a life of true to life experiences. She was one wonderful, smart, loving, crazy fun woman that truly loved life! Her Son, Randy, tells her “older aging” stories best. She will live on thru him & Ron! She was also my Mom’s BFF & like a Sister to my Mom! God Bless you, Aunt Geraldine! You are in my heart forever! 🌹🌹🌹🌹🌹
