“ Heath was my nephew and I can remember going to visit him when he was little he always had a smile. I did not see him much when he became a adult but I was so proud of the man he became. He was a loving father and I know his kids will miss him. I talked to him once in a while on Facebook but really wish I could have went to see him again. I know my sister Tammy had a hard time when he went to live with his grandma and grandpa who he loved so much. It really hurt him when they passed he worked with and learned so much from his grandpa. I am so sad I did not go and see him more. Heath I will never forget that smiling face and will see you again one day.
Love you
