

Hugh C Jones Jr.

April 23, 1946 - August 1, 2024

Hugh C. Jones, Jr., a lifelong Bowling Green, FL resident, passed away peacefully surrounded by family on August 1, 2024, at 78. Hugh Jr. was the eldest of six children.

He is survived by his brothers, Terry (Patty) Jones of Bowling Green, Florida, and Jerry (Diane) Jones of Bowling Green, Florida. He was preceded in death by his parents,

Hugh Sr. and Alma Addison Jones of Gardner, Florida, and siblings; Wanda (Jimmy)

Gunn of Sebring, Florida, Betty Nix, of Nauvoo, Alabama, and Clara Von Gadbow of Lakeland, Florida.

Hugh served our great country in the Navy aboard the USS Leary Destroyer during Vietnam. He was a proud patriot. After returning home from his service, Hugh started a family. He spent 34.5 years of early mornings and long days as a dragline oiler at

IMC/Agrico/Mosiac. However, his passion was caring for the family's orange groves and seeing that legacy passed on to his son. He was an active member of the American Legion Post #2 and the Veterans of Foreign Wars #9853. Hugh enjoyed fishing for snook, grilling an amazing steak, lunch with friends at the Pioneer, and time with his family and hound dog.

Hugh is survived by his children, Kimberly (Adam) Roberts of Lakeland, Florida, and (Hoss) Hugh C. Jones, III (Sarah) of Alturas, Florida. He has five grandchildren, Ali, Elise, Jason, Colby, and Ethan all of whom love him very much.

A small family service, with military honors, will be on August 31st at Hugh's residence.

“ I taught Hugh in the sixth grade in Bowling Green. He was quite an individual. He had a very interesting personality. Hugh also had a great talent for art. I wonder if he used that talent in his adult years. I am sure he will be missed by his family and friends. Robert Cook
