“ I am sad because "Grandmomma" (as I called her) passed away and because I didn't know.
Mrs. Iris would only want to talk to me when she'd come to the Hardee County Courthouse. Whether what she needed was my department or not, she'd ask, very loudly, "Where is that Black Girl?". And tell them, "I only want to talk to that Black Girl".
When I went to work at the Supervisor of Elections Office she came to see me more than once. The Staff didn't know what to think the first time she came in loudly demanding to talk to the Black Girl (LOL). The first time she came in, she'd been to the Clerk's Office but didn't want to hear what they told her so I called and they told me what they'd told her. I told her exactly what they'd already told her and she was okay. I told the Staff that no matter what I was doing when "Grandmomma" came in, to get me because she was a PRIORITY!!! I LOVED "Grandmomma"!!!

“ My parents, Buford and Virginia Knight, were very good friends with Iris and Floyd, when we lived in Wauchula Hills. My husband and I were good friends of Dennis. I would see Iris in Walmart and we always talked. I loved her very much. She was so sweet. I will miss her! Clark and Janie Pearson.
