

Iva Lynn Monies-Beard

January 19, 1956 - June 10, 2022

Iva Lynn Monies Beard, age 66, was tragically killed on east county line road on June 10th at 4:37 pm. She was involved in a fatal car accident. Lynn was born in Tallahassee to William and Ivy Monies on January 19, 1956. As a child, Lynn and her family moved to the Winter Haven area where she had fun playing in the lake and helping with the family business. Lynn graduated high school and went on to further her education at the University of South Florida even though she always cheered for the Florida State Seminoles. Ms. Beard, a college graduate, and former proprietor of Earnest Groves and Earnest Apartments is survived by her daughter (Tiffany Nicole Davis), granddaughters Kalii, Kelcii, Kristian, and Kacii, great-grandson Kaden, brother (William R Monies II) and nephews Andrew and Alec Monies.

Lynn was a devoted wife, mother, sister, grandmother, and great-grandmother. Lele will be forever loved and cherished by her grandchildren Kalii, Kelcii, Kristian, Kacii, and great-grandson Kaden. She will be deeply missed by her brother Billy Monies, Mark, and Kim Bolin, as well as many cousins, nephews, relatives, and friends.

Predeceased by the love of her life John Beard and her parents William and Ivy Monies.

A special thanks and appreciation to the family members in Jacksonville, who was always there for Lynn. Thank you.

A celebration of Lynn's life will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday, July 2, 2022, at the Robarts Family Funeral Home, 529 West Main Street, Wauchula, FL.

We all love you LeLe.
