“ We are very sorry to hear of Bruce's passing. When Bruce first moved to the neighborhood he introduced himself and we were instantly friends. Bruce was a very caring individual and did much to help others. I saw him many times volunteering at the food bank and of course there was his work with Guardian Ad Litem. On a couple of occasions we were lucky enough to celebrate the New Year with him and Jolanta. We had many good times together. Our long visits at his home late into the night will be sorely missed. Bruce, you were one of the very best people ever put on this earth. You are missed and you are loved my friend!
