“ Little papa I'll miss our times together. For as long as I remember, you have always been the foundation of our family. I'll miss you plundering in your barn. I'll miss you pulling out your knife and carving up my orange perfectly. I'll miss watching you on your mower. I'll miss trying on the 100000 hats you had. But most of all, I'll miss you being my little papa. Can't wait to see you again.
