

James Edward Dimock

November 3, 1941 - June 5, 2025

James Edward Dimock, 83, of Wauchula, Florida, passed away peacefully on June 5, 2025, at his home, surrounded by his loving family. Born on November 3, 1941, in Miami, Florida, he was the son of Robert Dimock and Lois Patton Dimock.

James dedicated his career to the construction industry as an operating engineer and was a proud member of the International Union of Operating Engineers. He moved to Hardee County in 1976, where he became a cherished member of the community. Known for his adventurous spirit, James enjoyed gambling and had a particular fondness for playing lottery scratch-offs.

He was preceded in death by his beloved wife of 28 years, Patricia Dimock, and his parents. James is survived by his children: Kimberly Andrews of Estero, Florida; Ricky Dimock of Daytona, Florida; Tracy Fullerton and Ron Fullerton of Las Vegas, Nevada; and Jimmy Dimock and Wendy Dimock of Wauchula, Florida. He is also survived by his sister, Joanne Goddard, and Jim Goddard of Temple, Texas, along with seven grandchildren and twelve great-grandchildren, all of whom will miss him dearly.

A private family service will be held to honor James's life and legacy.

James will be remembered for his warmth, humor, and the love he shared with his family and friends. He leaves behind a legacy of hard work, dedication, and a zest for life that will continue to inspire those who knew him.

“ I was friends with Jimmy since 1974 in Miami where we worked together. Stayed in touch all these years many good times in Ft. Lauderdale riding our Harleys together and making the rounds to the local restaurants. He was an easy going laid back sort of guy and will be greatly missed by many people.
