“ What a great lady going home to Heaven. She was a sureGod loving woman. I have a very special day we shared with her when my sister Joann was dying she came with her daughter Melanie. They went to the bed by her with me and Andy. They put songs on that she loved to sing at the church Joann came out of her coma for a little bit and started singing with us, I felt as if there was a choir of Angels all around us. I was so blessed to have known her and loved her. I will miss her, but not the good memories. Love you all.....u
