“ Jill (then Brooker) was a fellow Class of 1970 Whitewater High School classmate. She was always kind, cheerful, and fun. She had the most amazing pet skunk. I remember her still after all these years. Rest in Peace, sweet soul! ”

“ Jill, we will miss you so much. I was Tom's step son and when I reached out to contact him, Jill shared that he had passed. She invited my son and I to her home and welcomed us with open arms. She was always a lady and always laughing. I will always keep her warm heart and embrace as an example of how people are supposed to be. Filled with Love! Rest in peace Mama Jill. Love, Davey

“ There are so many memories of Jill from dinners to Renaissance fairs. The one I'd like to share at this time is the day we met. We had emailed, video chatted and spoken on the phone many times and finally planned to drive with our kids and dog to New Mexico. Scott and Shara met us outside Rio Rancho and we followed them to Jill's house. When we got there we found a lot of people and a news van. So the moment we actually met Jill and Tiny was broadcast on the news. It was great fun and lot of food.
