“ My husband Charlie and I are so sorry for the loss of your Dad. John came into our lives in the neighborhood of 5 years ago, and from the first we could see that he was a very special person. His personality and outlook on life was refreshing. He had a sense of humor that kept you on guard and wondering what he could come up with next. We lost a very much loved friend and we thought of him as a part of our family.

We are tremendously sorry for your loss.
