

Judy Faye Simmons

November 18, 1961 - November 30, 2024

Judy Faye Simmons, 63, of Bowling Green, Florida, passed away on November 30, 2024, in Wauchula, Florida. Born on November 18, 1961, in Enterprise, Alabama, she was the beloved daughter of Huey Sconyers and Faye Summers Sconyers. Judy was a dedicated resident of Bowling Green for the past 12 years, having previously lived in Polk County. She devoted her career to working as a daycare provider, where her nurturing spirit shone brightly. Above all, Judy cherished her roles as a mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, considering these relationships her greatest achievements. Her love for her family was boundless, and she embraced every moment spent with them. In addition to her family, Judy had a passion for reading, gardening, and sewing. She was known for her warm heart and open door, always welcoming anyone in need into her home. Judy truly was a mother to everyone she met, leaving a lasting impact on all who knew her. Judy is preceded in death by her sister, Angie Eubanks. She is survived by her loving spouse, Dustin Simmons; her sons, Brian Criswell and wife Ashly of Bowling Green, Raymon Criswell and wife Donna of Bowling Green, and Cameron Simmons of Panama City, Florida; her daughters, Beverly Cantu and husband Oscar of Belle Glade, Florida, and Jennifer Cook and husband Allen of Old Town, Florida; her brothers, Donald Sconyers of Fort Meade, Florida, and Jack Sconyers and wife Lynn of Bowling Green, Florida; as well as 19 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. A memorial service will be held in her honor at Roberts Garden Chapel on Saturday, December 7, at 12

PM. Judy's spirit will live on in the hearts of her family and friends, and she will be deeply missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her.
