There are no words to describe my family's sadness. Lallie is the rare person you meet that brightens your whole day. I am so thankful to have had the chance to work with her twice, both in Florida and North Dakota. She traveled all the way to the Bakken to help me open a new hotel, training all the staff. She made such an impression on everyone she met. She brought so much happiness to those around her, the world is a much dimmer place without her in it. My fondest memory was her not believing we knew who Daddy Yankee was and having to prove it to her by singing it, despite that small problem that I don't speak Spanish! Her family and Lil are her whole world, our thoughts and prayers are with them. Don, Beth, Ashley, Caleb & Jessica.

“ Lallie, you take a piece of my heart with you I will miss you . You were like a daughter to me you always made me laugh and our joking around at work always made it a good day no one can ever replace you we were a good team.I will miss you calling me grandma that always made me smile coming from anyone else it probably would p me off. but then again that's what I loved about you your honesty .you and I had our spats because we both spoke what was on our minds to the point one of us always got mad i usually walked off because i didn't want to say something i would regret which you told me that really ped you off because i wouldn't let you finish. But i wouldn't let you stay mad to long because i couldn't stand for us not to talk. I have only had very limited good friends in my life i never let to many people get close to me and you knew this and now your gone and i just lost another friend in November that makes two good friends for me and i don't know what im going to do without both of you.I can hear you now old woman you typed everything wrong but your not here to correct it for me you know i hate computers and your not here to help me. what am i going to do without you it just isn't the same, I LOVE YOU!
