“ One thing I will really miss about my grandmother...are her HUGS....she gave the best hugs...not like one of these one arm hugs or a fake hug..but a real tight, both arms, almost like a bear hug hug.

She will be greatly missed and our holidays will definitely NEVER be the same.....Her and grandpa will both be in our hearts always.

Until we meet again...love you guys

“ There are so many happy and fun memories I could share about this wonderful Aunt of mine. What a wonderful smile and laugh she had. I especially remember all the family gatherings we had in Bedford and Grandma and Grandpa Cochrans where everyone was always playing pitch or cribbage. You will so be missed Aunt Lil, but am glad to know that you and Uncle Cecil , Dad, Uncle Walt, Uncle Hank, Uncle Tom, Uncle Kenny and Aunt Peggy are all up there enjoying a game of cards again.

“ Mom loved her family - children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren - and really enjoyed family gatherings, especially Christmas and Thanksgiving. We were blessed to have her with us through Christmas. By God's grace, her family was with her at home in her last days. She passed peacefully, surrounded by family - she wouldn't have wanted it any other way.

She also loved quilting, dancing, the Big Band music of great performers such as Glenn Miller and Jimmy Dorsey (music that serenaded her Home). She loved her church and church family.

What we'll miss - her smile, her stories, the holidays that will never be the same, and our family home that will not be the same without Mom & Dad.

Here's what I know - she is dancing around the throne of God with a new body, singing a new and beautiful hymn of praise to Jesus, and probably giving Dad at least a little grief about something:)

I miss you Mom - we miss you. But, we will see you in the light of eternity. Of this, I am certain.

“ I will never forget the angel food cake with chocolate glaze we would have after school . And of course the Halloween sugar cookies. She was a special lady. Hold on to those memories. Jill Hagans Roberts
