

Lynda L Hart

June 13, 1945 - October 28, 2024

Lynda L. Hart, 79, of Sebring, Florida passed away surrounded by family on Monday, October 28, 2024. She was born on June 13, 1945, in Geneva, New York. Lynda moved to Highlands County, Florida from California in 197. She was a seamstress by trade working for Wellcraft Industries, a former business owner and maker of leather crafts and jewelry, and enjoyed motorcycle rides. Lynda was Pentecostal by faith and her famous saying was "Don't worry about me, everything's fine". She is preceded in death by her sister Debbie Brust. Lynda is survived by her spouse of 33 years Earl Fisher, son Lyle Hart and wife Barbara of Avon Park, Florida, daughter Brenda Schuler of Wauchula, Florida, 5 grandchildren, and 6 great-grandchildren. She will forever be missed by those who knew her.