“ My dad was a hard working provider, husband, father, and pappaw. He loved my mother for 59 years. He helped anyone who needed it. He had a plethora of stories he told and had a great sense of humor. He was a favorite uncle to many of my cousins and got along with most people. He was a great dancer and I loved him for him. With his flaws and all, he was my dad. I was blessed to have him in my life. My favorite memories are being woke up with him bellowing, “ Wake up and piss the world’s on fire”, him taking me to football games and state championships, him taking me to all four years of Father/Daughter dances, his love for my kids, his love for my mother, his fun loving spirit. Dad, I know you are near and I want you to know I love you forever.
