“ Maria and Victor, I have never met your daughter, but by the sparkle in your eye when you spoke of her to me I saw a glimpse of the beautiful daughter she was. I know you were so proud of her and what a blessing she was to you all. My heart aches and is so saddened for your whole family. There are no words that will ever be spoken to make this better. Just know that every memory you have and share you are keeping her with you. You are all in my thoughts and prayers.. Jo Ann Stapleton

“ My condolences. She was a loyal, thoughtful, inviting and understanding friend. She was a great listener and she had the most contagious laugh. I would sometimes overhear her laugh and even though I had no idea what she was laughing about, I would smile and or join in laughing. She will most definitely be missed.

" The sorrow of the faithful is not that of permanent loss, but the tender sense of sadness that comes in saying good-bye for now to someone we love. May today's sorrow give way to the peace and comfort of God's love."

“ *Our words can't take away the pain of losing a loved one but...
"May tender memories soften your grief, May fond recollection bring you relief, And may you find comfort and peace in the thought Of the joy that knowing your loved one brought... For time and space can never divide Or keep your loved one from your side.
When memory paints in colors true, the happy hours that belonged to you."
