“ Mary I will always remember you as the kind, loving, caring, humble woman you were to me when I came over to your house on many different occasions, you opened your house to me as if I were family and that meant a lot to me, I will always remember the day we went out to the lox fishing, even though you were in pain! Your husband, boys, family and friends will miss you dearly, you are now living within their heart! Rest In Peace now with no more pain and suffering! My condolences ❤️ marcy
