

Mary Saldivar

August 10, 1950 - December 18, 2010

Mary Katherine Saldivar, 60, of Wauchula, died Dec. 18, 2010 at Hope Hospice in Sebring. She was born in New Albany, Miss. on Aug. 10, 1950 and had been a resident of Hardee County for over 40 years. She attended the First United Methodist Church of Sebring, and had been employed at G. Pierce Wood Hospital as a Supervisor and Human Service worker.

She was preceded in death by a brother, Jerry Todd and sister, Carolyn Stinson. Survivors include one daughter, Tammy Chaundy of Sebring; three sons, Ramon Romero III of Bowling Green, Johnny Saldivar of Bowling Green, and Christopher Saldivar of Wauchula; three brothers, Ricky Todd of Bartow, Johnny Todd of Bowling Green, and Wayne Todd; nine grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Visitation is from 6-8 p.m. Monday, Dec. 20th at Robarts Garden Chapel. Funeral services are at 11:00 a.m. Tuesday at Robarts Garden Chapel with Rev. A. C. Bryant officiating. Interment is in Bowling Green Cemetery.