“ My beloved friend Mary - I was away up in Massachusetts when I got the news - My heart is broken Mary that you are no longer with us - Mary, you fought one heck-of-a-fight .. You and I both went through ovarian cancer - you said I would always encourage you - I am so glad that I did - I can't even tell you how much I miss you - and David I have no way of getting in touch with you - called your number - I believe they said disconnected - Mary you deserve a lot of credit to go on like you did in the story of Jesus while suffering so much .- God gave you one more year right to the end in the play that we both loved so very much - You always had a hug for everybody - I know there is a lot of hugs waiting for you in heaven and we will all be together one day again for ever and ever ... you are loved and missed

“ My favorite picture of Mary, is her servant's heart. In her illness, and weakness, she dust-mopped the civic center after practice, while other "healthy" folks went home. She didn't grumble about it.... She just thought that was a way she could serve her Lord and His Kingdom. Very SPECIAL lady!! I'm glad I had a chance to know her, and I know she is enjoying Heaven right now. Another gift for us we don't doubt where she is. She was a great example of LOVE with feet and hands.!

“ Mary, I'm going to miss you. You were certainly one of a kind, and had a knack for making new words. You made me laugh, and I'm going to miss that about you. You were one of the best friends I ever had.

“Mary, I thought I knew you, but I didn't really know you at all until the very last night of the play this year. Until then I only knew you as "Mary who liked to talk & talk & talk some more!" Being a little emotional , after doing SOJ for 15 years & having to say goodbye to all my friends, a flood of tears came over me taking me by surprise! Yes, I was crying like crazy ... But who was there to hold me & tell me we would all see each other again?? My "special" friend, MARY! ...and yes, we WILL see each other again. That's a fact . Until then, Shalom ... & when I get there we will laugh together about the first time you were ever speechless - when you beheld His wonderful, beautiful face :)
