I will not forget, in one of our commission meetings last month the tribute his daughter gave to her dad in a public meeting. I told Richard afterwards that there is no doubt how much his daughter loves him and appreciates him. I praise his daughter for taking the time to do it and not putting it off for a better time and place. A lot of us have done just the opposite and it became too late.

My condolences to the family but they can be at peace knowing where Richard is today.
