

Richard Varone

April 26, 1952 - November 2, 2023

Richard Varone, a beloved resident of Bowling Green, FL, passed away recently. Richard had relocated to Bowling Green in 2018 from Key West, where he had spent many years building a fulfilling life. He dedicated his career to the beverage industry, working as a distributor for various companies. Notably, he retired from Coca-Cola after many years of dedicated service.

Richard was also a proud member of the Army National Guard, serving his country with honor and dedication. His commitment to his military duties was a testament to his strong character and love for his country. Outside of work and military service, Richard had a passion for dirt track racing. He found great joy in the exhilaration of the sport and cherished the friendships he made within the racing community.

Richard is survived by his loving son, Sean Varone, who resides in New York. He also leaves behind his brothers, Robert Varone of New Jersey, Steven Varone of New Jersey, and Johnny Varone of New Jersey. Additionally, he is survived by his sister, Barbara Varone of New Jersey, as well as several nieces and nephews.

Richard Varone will be deeply missed by all who knew him. His kind heart, dedication, and zest for life will be remembered and cherished by his family and friends. May he rest in peace.
