“ It's been well over a year ago since I learned about my birth father passing. I didn't even know he passed until an old friend sent me the link to the obituary and funeral services. Every now and then I come back here just to get a glimpse of him. Today I realized that his birthday and my one and only first born son are the same. This message may come as a shock to many considering that it's been several years later. My condolences to his wife Ashley Moore and the children. Ashley if you are reading this, I would like to connect with you. We can chat on here or feel free to email me itarahg28@gmail.com. I have so many questions and you may or may not have some too. God bless!

“ I met Robert years ago, I was working at FINR and he a was a client. He never acted like a client and he told me time after time what God had done for him. He said God brought him back from the grave and changed his whole life. He lived to Praise God and tell of His love for others. Robert was a great person and I am very proud to have been one of his friends!! I will miss that smile and I know I will see him in Heaven one day!! Rest In Peace, Robert!!!

“ Rest in peace, Robert you are now at peace, free at last from all your illness and pain. Though I never met you in person in this life I felt like I knew you, and I look forward to meeting you someday in this Earth made new. You were a true man that I could have only the greatest respect for and you will be so sadly missed by a lot of people. As my husband, Eddie would say, may every good “Irish Angel” be at Ashley’s and the kids’ sides to watch over them for now and forever until you all meet again in that better place. Ashley, may God be with and comfort you and your family and help you through this time of grief. God sent a wonderful man into your life and even though I know it seems unfair that He only loaned him to you for far too short a time, you and your children will always keep in your hearts the love he had for all of you. He was one of the truly great men in this sad and selfish world...one who loved and followed God, and one who loved and married not just the woman he loved but also loved her children and took them as his own. Just keep strong in God and for your babies, knowing that someday you will be reunited in that better world where he is now waiting for all of you. "...weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning." Psalms 30:5 *KJV Robert Valentino Moore was a true man who stepped up to be a loving father to four children who were not his own as well as a loving husband to their mother. He deserves nothing less than the greatest praise and admiration!

“ Robert is the most amazing man that I have ever met, besides his father

Jah-ovah(all things)

When Robert and I met we talked about the Lord and His word all the time. One day I had debated on the subject of Adam and Eve at Sunday school. So of course Robert and I went into the Word. I asked him, "Robert, didn't Adam commit the first sin, not Eve, because the Heavenly Father went to Adam and told Adam not to eat of the tree, and Adam was suppose to bring his God-sent wife to the Heavenly Father when she asked him to eat of the apple instead of eating it, when he knows what Jah told him to do?", and Robert said " yes ." in that moment I felt the Holy spirit hit me so deep that I jumped up. I knew when I went to the Heavenly Father alone, everyday. asking him for guidance in His word, that's exactly what He would do, guide me. ANd that was the day Robert and I fell in love. We fell in love with HIS word, and with each other, together. I am honored that I got the privilege of loving him, teaching him, crying with him, learn how to raise our children, with him...He has taught me how to be a Christ follower, He has taught me how to be a wonderful mom, and so much more. ..Robert always said that I am his virtuous wife. Roberts flesh turns to ashes but his spirit will always be ALIVE. Thank you Heavenly Father for choosing me to take care and love your heavenly son.

“ The day I met Robert he was giving me a tour of the home he had purchased and was renovating. It happened to be right next door to me! He was also sharing plans for other home improvements when he stopped and said "this home needs a family". A family is exactly what he gave it! As if his bubbly self was not enough he added his beautiful Ashley and her children. Because of him I once again woke on Saturday mornings to the sound of children playing! Life had sprung anew on our street! Robert, my husband and myself held countless conversations in the short time we knew him and they always included his love for God and he ALWAYS let you know just how blessed he was. He will be missed by those of us still here but at the same time we rejoice in his ultimate healing.

“ From the first moment I met Robert there was an instant connection on the spiritual realm. Robert was always uplifting,encouraging,loving,caring and devoted to his wife and children. Robert has touched and impacted many lives and reached many in his time here with each of us. Robert always will have a very special place in many lives.

Mrs Rosemary Robert looked forward to seeing you every time we went to the chemo center. I will never forget when you departed and went to another job, he said to me "well I don't know what is going on but something fishy is happening around that place if Rosemary left".. I started giggling cause that was Rob. he needed that spiritual closeness and He didn't have that anymore at the center once you were gone. so I Thank you so much for being you <3

“ Robert, you meant so much to Adam and me, You truly were our brother, Your Faith in God may of been what grabbed my attention but Boy did I gain so much more from his blessings just being apart of this family!! I'll miss playin poker with you (Sorry we didn't get to play one last time), Your Mean Dog face, watching you hold the flag at football even when you were sick and getting so excited for the boys at touch down, I'll miss the way you enjoyed your wine, the smile on the face, hearing you say " Naw Man " Never will I forget your reaction at the baby shower to Butt Paste or the ride to the hospital when Is'Real was being born you wanted to know everything and then you said " Oh Wait Wait Wait this is too much OH tell me more " Then Thursday when you told Ashley you wanted us to come back and see you, and all you wanted to tell us was you loved us and give us one last mean dog face (Thanks for letting me get that pic) Man you don't know how much you mean to us there is NO ONE that can tell me we weren't family NO ONE that can say this love isn't of God, he put our group together to glorify his name and together we did just that, You told everyone you fixed up that house for your family well now your building a even bigger castle in Heaven for your family well just don't forget that poker table. Love you Robert
