“ Connie, my heart just breaks for you. i remember the great times Harold and I had with you and Rodney. I always thought Rodney had the most beautiful head of hair and awesome smile. I do regret we didn't stay in touch better when we moved to Texas. Perhaps one day you can come to Dallas. It would be awesome to give you a hug.

Love you Jill

“Connie my heart pours out to you and all that knew Rodney. A great loss as he was a joy to be around. He had looks and charm and a head for business from computers to strawberries-lots of good things going for him. My earliest memory is the short time I was at Hardee High and he was a well known football player.

I last saw him at Aunt Vi's service where he was entertaining with stories of his many baseball stadium visits.
