“ My father moved into the same assisted-living facility as Russel. My father had been a square dance caller who called all across the country.

When we heard that Russel had squared danced at one time we made a B line over to his table to introduce ourselves. Never have we met a more kind, gentle, thoughtful and selfless human being. Each time I would visit, we made a point of going by to visit Russel. Russel was always willing to lend an ear to anyone who had a concern or care. He lived his faith each and every day, and was a shining example to others.

Since his passing everyone at Savannah Court, including many of the the staff, miss him terribly!

We will never forget you , Russell!!!
