“ *Ann was always such a beautiful and sweet girl. I remember her as a child and watched her grow up to a wonderful lady. My parents lived just up the road from the grandparents (Selph).

“ Ann you were the oldest of us 11 kids you showed us alot while growing up with your prim and proper ways and your funny little jokes I remember coming over to your apartment one day with Bonnie and Darlina when we walked in I seen the most beautifulist wall painting I have ever seen and it was your work of art you had such talent right down to ironing your long black beautiful hair. And cracking jokes on dad we will miss you and now your fighting this worldly battle is over . You can fly with your wings wide open even though we all weren't in touch as much as we should have been we take for granted while your here. You will be missed tell Yoko and Eddie and Dad and mom we said we will see you all one day. Love Resa
