“ Oh Billy, I miss you so much. I keep sitting here at mamas waiting for you to walk through her front door. I don't know how to do life without you still being here with us. I'm broken-hearted, but I'm also happy that God took you from the terrible pain and suffering that you were going through. You're whole and pain free walking those streets of gold. I'm going to try and cowgirl up and stay strong as. I can until my turn comes to my the trip to Heaven. Until then I'll never stop loving you and I'll never stop missing you. Forever in my heart. 💔. “ I met William when he was a cop for the City of Wauchula and I was Stores Clerk at the COW warehouse, they would come there to gas up. He was such a nice man and glad I had a chance to know him briefly. Wayne has talked about him and said they always called him Billy. Condolences to the family.
