“ My youngest brother. He was born 1 month and 1 day after I turned 7 yrs old . It was a time when older children was expected to take care of younger ones . He was the baby even when 16 monthes later our baby sister Mary was born she was just the other half of the baby. When you saw one you saw the other. As a man he was the one we called when we wanted to know anything about gardening livestock or if we just wanted an inteligent conversation about what was going on in the world. He was never afraid to say he was sorry if he said or did something wrong. He is missed already . I love you brother and I am so proud of the man you became.
